Today's Cocktails

Hugo Spritz

No Aperol on the island and in dire need of a spritz?
No worries. Let's have a Hugo Spritz instead.
Fresh mint, St. Germain's Elderflower liqueur, prosecco, and soda.

RowHouse Hurricane

An simplified but delicious version of Louis Culligan's 1940's drink.
Demerara rum, Jamaican rum, freshly squeezed lemon juice
and homemade passion fruit syrup.
(while supplies last)

Gin Celery Sour

Gin, freshly pressed celery juice, freshly squeezed lemon juice and simple syrup shaken and poured over freshly grated ginger. Not too sweet.
Excellent cocktail with a meal.

Enzoni

Vincenzo Erico's modern classic.
London dry gin, Campari, freshly squeezed lemon juice,
and simple syrup over muddled green grapes.
Shaken, strained and served.
Think gin sour meets negroni.
